THE AGE OF MUSIC.

We live in an age of music. In no period of the world's history has the "Art divine" been more widely or wisely studied and appreciated than in our own time. The concert has become an institution, and the organ has attained the position of an essential of civilization. We can boast of Gonoud, Ambrose Thomas, Richard Wagner, and others as composers, and Leiszt, Rubenstine, Mills, Heller, Morgan, Thayer, Buck, and others, as pianists and organists, while many of our houses have their pianos, and most of our churches and a goodly proportion of our private dwellings have the organ. The cost and size of the organ has heretofore been an obstacle in the way of its general use, but in the march of improvements these objections have been obviated entirely. Under the names of melodeons, parlor organs, cabinet organs, &c., the main features of the organ have been combined with much less than the average bulk and cost of a good piano. In consequence, the organ, in musical circles, is now "the rage." The best and most popular of organs, is the "Estey." This instrument is what it professes to be, AN ORGAN; it is not a bagus piano, nor a hybrid organ, which in trying to combine the excellencies of both, falls short of the merits of either; but is an organ reduced in size, but equal in all respects to all the requirements of an organ. The Estey organs are noted for their beautiful tones, both in power and sweetness, towering above all other instruments in these important and indispensable qualities. We have been led to these reflections from the fact that we have ourselves become the happy possessors of one of these magnificent organs, which we purchased of the gentlemanly and accomplished agents, Messrs. Sanders & Stayman, No. 15 N. Charles Street, whose palatial rooms we advise all our readers to visit, as they will find an array of musical instruments of the piano and organ class which cannot be seen anywhere else in our good city. Here may be seen the stately WEBER CONCERT GRAND PIANO, as well as the various styles of square and upright, of this celebrated maker, who has become the favorite maker of all our first-class artists and musicians. To those of our readers who may not find it convenient to visit the city, we would say write to these gentlemen for catalogues or any information you may desire regarding pianos and organs, and they will cheerfully respond, and any statements they may make can be fully relied upon.

THE COMING CONTEST.

Purchasers of Musical Instruments find it extremely difficult to decide upon the relative merits of different manufactures. Most dealers have a good reputation for honorable and fair dealing; they point with pride to a long list of medals and premiums obtained at different fairs and exhibitions throughout the country, and each one claims that his is "par excellence," decidedly the best made. Now it is a notorious fact substantiated by thousands of persons connected with such exhibitions, that the most competent refuse to serve on juries for the obvious reason, that whatever their decision may be, they will give offense to one or another of the manufacturers, with whom they desire to be on good terms. There is no alternative therefore but to select juries from persons who have little or no knowledge of the subject and have no reputation at stake. These are almost always open to corruption and bribery, and will give the prize to the highest bidder. Hence it is that medals obtained at fairs and exhibitions are of no practical value whatever. Different is it in Europe; there the most distinguished and able connoisseurs are invited and deem it an honor to serve on juries, and if a decision is made it is accepted by the whole world as final. Few of our manufacturers have been willing to risk this ordeal, but it is a matter of pride and gratification to all Americans, that at the exhibitions of London, Paris and Vienna, the Pianos of Steinway & Sons and Chickering & Sons, and organs of Mason & Hamlin, have obtained the most distinguished recognition of merit, by receiving the first gold medal over the combined world; and they were the only ones given to American exhibitors. Here is the solution of the problem: Purchase what is pronounced by the highest tribunal of the world as the best, and you will not be imposed upon, but are sure to get the very best. On the other hand, George Woods & Co., the great organ manufacturers, knowing the impossibility of obtaining an impartial trial of their instruments at our fairs, have, from the very beginning of their existence as manufacturers, persistently refused to exhibit anywhere, and yet they have achieved a name and a fame throughout the length and breadth of the land, for general excellence unequaled by any other. This is the greatest triumph of all. Great interest naturally centers on the coming Centennial Exhibition, for all the leading manufacturers of Pianos and Organs will have their instruments represented there. Upon the jury devolves a very great responsibility, and it is sincerely to be hoped that the men to be appointed on it will be of undoubted ability, and their personal integrity above even the suspicion of reproach. In that event the result cannot be doubtful, and we predict that the above far-famed instrument will carry off the victory, as they have always done before, and thus silence forever all cheap pretenders, with which, unfortunately for the people at large, the country fairly swarms. Mr. Otto Sutro is Sole Agent for Maryland, for all the above celebrated instruments, and to his Warerooms, No. 207 W. BALTIMORE STREET, in Baltimore, we advise our readers to go, and we assure them in advance that they will get at a reasonable price a first-class article.

REPORT

MARCH 1st, 1876.

Mr. President and Brethren of the Baltimore Conference:

I have the gratification of reporting many encouraging facts concerning the present condition of Randolph Macon. The growing appreciation of the College among our own people; the name the institution has won by its work; the high rank it has attained in the estimate of the best educated classes; the extent of its patronage; the diligence and good conduct of the students, and the large number of them who are earnest Christians; the love which the young men show they have for the College, and the large number who seem desirous to pursue a course of study as extensive as their circumstances will allow; these are most encouraging facts. They show how limited means diligently applied may, through God's blessing, accomplish much good.

We have one hundred and sixty-seven students; forty-one from the bounds of the Baltimore Conference, forty-two preparing for the ministry; of these, eighteen expect to enter the Baltimore Conference, and twenty-six are sons of ministers.

These figures show we are doing most valuable work for the Church.

Two things tend to give the College a high place in public appreciation; the high standard we require, and the thoroughness of our English course.

THE STUDY OF ENGLISH.

I beg special attention to the following remarks on the study of English, which will be found in the catalogue. "The Board of Trustees, in adding this new school to the established schools of the College, has endeavored to remedy a defect that has been long felt and bitterly regretted by cultivated men, as the chief fault in collegiate instruction ; for the study of English in the College may, as our experience has shown, be regarded as useful both as means and as end. As the means of securing an easier and sounder progress in other studies, and especially in the study of other languages, the scientific study of the English, by preparing the mind for the reception of other sciences, by sharpening the intelligence and by stimulating the powers of thought and of expression, has shown itself to be of the highest utility. But, beyond all that, the Trustees and the faculty are profoundly convinced that the opportunity of careful and exact study of our own language, as an end in itself, is the greatest benefit that our College can bestow upon her sons. Thus, in doing this, they are helping to solve the much mooted question of practical education, and are removing from the collegiate system the reproach that both in England and America, has of late brought upon the Colleges well merited censure. Young men born into the possession of a language that comes down to them fraught with the wealth of a splendid history, and into the enjoyment of a literature that throws open to them the highest models of moral and intellectual greatness, ought not for lack of teaching, to be suffered to leave College, knowing many other things, indeed, but unskilled in the use of their mother tongue and with far less knowledge of their own rich heritage than of the treasures of foreign lands. It ought no longer to be seen that young men at the end of their studies, should often be unable to write a letter decently, or to express with ease or even with correctness the knowledge they have won. The study of the English should, on the contrary, wherever English is spoken, enter as the leading element into every system of liberal education, and keep pace in its advances with the age and progress of the student. For in practical value, it of course surpasses, and in scientific value, as part and means of mental discipline, it at least equals the study of any foreign tongue. The College appeals, therefore, with hope and confidence to its friends and to the public to sustain it in this effort to place side by side with the Latin and the Greek, with the French and the German, the philological and literary study of the English. The studies in the school of English are arranged in five courses, each of one year." (Catalogue, p. 20.)

THE ENTIRE COURSE THOROUGH.

The entire college curriculum is such as to give your institution rank with those best Colleges that prefer a high standard and thorough instruction, to the reputation of issuing annually a multitude of diplomas. The College does not erect this standard. The age in which we live fixes it. The College only recognizes and provides for it.

STUDENTS OF DIVINITY.

A large number of young men who intend to devote their lives to the work of the ministry, come to us for instruction. They are required to bring the recommendation of the Quarterly Conference of the pastoral charge to which they belong, and to execute their bonds for the payment of their tuition fees within two years after leaving College, if they fail to devote themselves to the sacred work for which they come to us to prepare. Every year some of these recruit the ranks of the itinerancy, and it is gratifying to observe how large a portion of these young men, in both the patronizing Conferences, are doing most excellent service in the cause of our Divine Master.

THE RESOURCES OF THE COLLEGE.

Because of the great financial depression throughout the country, we have not yet been able to carry out the plans which we brought before you, and which you approved one year ago. But we do not despair. We trust the future will be brighter. The building and endowment fund is slowly yet steadily increasing. Rev. Thos. A. Ware, the present agent of the College, is a faithful, earnest and self-sacrificing christian minister of such ability and zeal, that we hope much from his labors. He is diligently devoting himself to this work. The building committee have already in hand a sufficient amount to justify them in commencing one of the new lecture halls in the Spring. Now is the time for all friends of the Institution to begin earnestly to put their helping hands to this good work.

LACK OF MONEY.

Like every other enterprise of the church, the College feels the depressing effect of the financial state of the country.

This lack of money to carry forward church work, hinders progress, multiplies cares, afflicts and depresses ministers, and increases the burdens of those faithful people of God who have to supply the lack of service of the less generous, and who will wear crowns that meaner natures never win. But this lack of money is not a strange fact in church history. Perhaps we allow it to discourage us too much. Church work always demands more money than it can obtain, simply because it is always pushed forward by earnest people who are in advance of the multitude in benevolence. From the Apostolic age until this day, there have been much apathy, want of zeal, unbelief, dullness of understanding and illiberality, hindering progress and making the church work move too slowly for the warmer and more energetic spirits who are fired with the purpose of seeking first, and more than every thing else, the Kingdom of God and his righteousness. The Apostolic testimony is, "even unto this present hour, we both hunger and thirst, and are naked and buffeted, and have no certain dwelling place, and labour working with our hands." Ministers may always expect to suffer the afflictions which pertain to religious leadership. But these trials are greatly modified wherever we can educate the people to appreciate their obligations to care for the cause and Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ. What a shame it is that the church of this day should allow a good useful minister of Christ to be compelled to choose between the suspension of his ministerial work, or going hopelessly in debt! How deplorable, that young men who offer themselves to the church for the work of the ministry, should have their hopeful zeal checked by tardy or by meagre encouragement! And how deeply to be regretted it is, that even those who are able and willing to pay for their education, and who prefer the church school to any other, should find the church wanting in sufficient liberality to furnish them with College facilities! To remedy these things which we deplore, what shall be done?

First of all, the faithful, though burdened, must not flinch under the trial, nor despond. Their reward is sure, and it shall be great. Let them stand up to their duty as soldiers that know how to endure hardness. All honor to such sons and daughters of the Almighty. They save everything that is saved. They are the salt of the earth. They are the light of the world. They are the strength and glory of the church.

But let us strive to increase the number of these faithful ones. Let us teach our churches how to bring forth the fruits of righteousness, showing them how that so laboring they ought to support the weak and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus how he said it is more blessed to give than to receive.

THE GREAT WORK BEFORE US.

The great work before us is worthy of patient continuance in well-doing, and we shall reap if we faint not.

To preserve the learning of ages ; to banish idolatry and superstition, and diffuse light among all nations ; to correct and convert the misapplied energies of men and concentrate them upon work that will save humanity from vice and shame ; to advance science with beautiful humility and intelligent boldness ; to give each new generation its needful discipline and instruction ; to be always in the front rank of civilization leading every age ; this is the glorious duty of the Christian Church.

The Divine Master once rebuked the mistaken and pretentious leaders among the Jews, by saying : "Ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth, but how is it ye cannot discern this time? The day of the world's redemption—the day to which prophetic stars had for ages pointed, had come; yet neither king, nor priest, nor philosopher could recognize its light. A few truth-seekers from a far country had come to bring gifts to Bethlehem's prince, and a few prayerful shepherds heard the world's morning song of hope from the night-sky. It is always so. A few must lead the multitude, and be the apostles of every new era, and make sacrifices by faith, and begin good works for others to finish.

Let us do our duty; do the best we can; make our church a power and a praise in the land. The young men by thousands look to us; let us receive them, educate them, baptize them at the fountains of christian learning, and send them out full armed to conquer the world for Christ!

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. A. DUNCAN,

MEMOIRS.

REV. FOUSHÉE C. TEBBS.

November 18th 1875, our brother Foushee C. Tebbs finished his work and entered into rest. Of his blessedness nothing adequate can be said. Of his life on earth only an imperfect sketch can be given.

Bro. Tebbs was born in Fauquier Co., Va., Oct. 11th, 1820. His ancestral line was honorable, but the irregularities of his early life threatened its fair fame. He fell into evil associations, contracted the vices of his companions, and while yet a boy, was chiefly noted for a bad pre-eminence in sin. But it pleased God to reveal his Son in him. When about 16 years old, he heard a sermon at Upperville, from Rev. Jno. Bear. The text fell upon the ear of young Tebbs—more, it was an arrow piercing his heart. The words “Sin no more” sounded as a voice from heaven. They were not inaudible when he left the house, but in every place, “Sin no more,”! “Sin no more,”!! “Sin no more,”!!! marred every carnal pleasure. The impression of this sermon was deepened under the ministry of Rev. Jno. A. Collins. He purchased a Bible, saying, this “shall be the guide of my life, and if there is mercy for such a sinner as I, I’ll seek till I obtain—if there is such a thing as religion, I’ll never rest until I feel its power in my heart.” He attended class, asked prayer of all who knew the way of life, sought an interview with his godly teacher, Mr. Norris, exclaiming as they met, “I’ve no God,”! “Pray for me.” Thus he walked in darkness for three long months, till at midnight of the Sabbath, having spent hours in wrestling with God, the answer came, and says the one who knew him best, “I’ve often heard him say his soul was so filled with joy unutterable, that he could only exclaim Glory to God”! The voice of his shouting aroused the inmates of the house, and the walls of the old mansion at Ben Lomond echoed with praise. His conversion was so clear, that it left no room for doubt, and in all his subsequent life, it was a luminous spot which no temptation could obscure.

Bro. T. was received into the church by Rev. N. J. B. Morgan. The Spring following, he was licensed to exhort. One year later he was licensed to preach, and commenced his ministry on Loudoun Circuit, where also it was ended, one week before he died, in a sermon from the words, "why stand ye here all the day idle." This last sermon contained a full summary of the Gospel Message. The Master calls—how He calls—the work to be done—when He calls—time is so short—the eleventh hour is at hand, and death comes on apace—be up and doing, there is no time for idling. In the elaboration of these points, the substance of his many years' preaching was condensed, and adds Rev. T. E. Carson, from whom these words are taken, "nor was that last sermon in vain." Bro. Tebbs wrought in the fields herein named, Westmoreland Circuit, 1 year, Moorefield Circuit, 1 year, Winchester Circuit, 1 year, Bath Circuit, 2 years, Berkeley Circuit, 2 years, Loudoun Mission, 3 years, Fincastle Circuit, 1 year, Rockbridge Circuit, 2 years, Churchville Circuit, 2 years, Lexington Station, 18 months, when he entered the army as Chaplin His health failing, he rested for the brief space of 2 months, when he returned to Rockbridge Circuit. The Spring following, he was stationed at Christiansburg, where he remained 2 years, then in order, Fredericksburg, 2 years, Linden Circuit, 1 year, Montgomery Circuit 1 year, Bethel Circuit, 1 year, South Branch Circuit, 1 year, Berryville Circuit, 2 years, Jefferson Circuit, 1 year, and last of all, East Harford Circuit.

Bro. Tebbs was of vigorous mind—a man who delighted more in well-ascertained truth than in profitless speculation. His preaching was clear, compact, and as to matter embodied the great facts of the gospel. Earnest and incisive, those who heard him were convinced that at least he was sincere. His ministry was fruitful, and through it many sinners were turned unto righteousness. Those who knew Bro. Tebbs will recall his delicate sense of honor, and the thorough truthfulness of his nature. Such candor and straightforwardness are possessed by few. He knew nothing of the thrift which follows fawning, and, now that he is gone, if any remain who once felt themselves aggrieved or rebuked by his honest speech, they will honor the man who would not call evil good or good evil.

"The last two months of his life," writes one who shared his joys and labors through eight and twenty years, "he was evidently being prepared for what awaited him—his religious enjoyment so much greater—seemed only to desire to live that he might work for Jesus—never happier than when he felt he could instrumentally promote the cause of God." The conclusion of the story is soon told. After a ride of 30 miles he entered his chamber ill of typhoid pneumonia. The mind began to wander—his wife reaches his bed-side—she is in an agony of prayer that God may so far restore him that he may again know her, speak once more the words of love, and testify of his hope in Christ. God hears prayer—he rejoices in God—darkness for a season supervenes—the darkness flees away—he praises God—says, "tell the preachers of the old Baltimore

Conference how I love them, that I love them all—sings “Precious Name”—says “there is a mansion for me, one for me,” and as the last word was uttered, he looked upward with a countenance of rapture, and it seemed as though the parting heavens had revealed the glories of the upper world. These were his last words on earth ; and I felt, says one who was at his bed-side—I felt in that moment, he had realized his wish expressed in a late sermon upon the death of Stephen, in which he said, I care not how I fall, nor where I fall, nor when I fall, if I may, like Stephen, have so much of the Holy Ghost in me, that looking up into heaven, I may say, I see Jesus. Admitted a probationer in the Baltimore Annual Conference, March, 1845, our beloved brother served his generation according to the will of God for 30 years, and then fell asleep. His body lies in the Cemetery at Middleburg—his spirit is with the just.

“The Lamb is their light and their Son,
And lo ! by reflection they shine ;
With Jesus ineffably one,
And bright in effulgence Divine.”

NOTE. Brother Tebbs died at the residence of Brother Young, near Pools-ville, Md. By this excellent family all was done for him that christian sympathy and kindness could suggest.

REV. JAMES F. LIGGETT.

James F. Liggett was born in Greenbrier County, Virginia, April 13th 1831. At the age of seventeen years, he was converted to God, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Lewisburg.

Being called of God to preach the gospel, he immediately began the work of preparation, and was admitted into the Baltimore Conference on trial, in March, 1855, and appointed to Lexington Circuit. He was appointed in 1856, to Finecastle Circuit ; in 1857, to Salem Circuit ; and in 1858-9, to Union, Monroe County.

He was married April 22d, 1858, to Miss Elizabeth, daughter of John and Nancy Armentrout, of Rockbridge County, Virginia.

He was appointed to Levelton, in 1860-1-2-3 ; to Salem, in 1864-5; to Blacksburg, in 1866-7; to East Rockingham, in 1868 -9-70-71; to Shenandoah Iron Works, in 1872-3-4; and in 1875, to Churchville, where he closed his ministry and his life.

Brother Liggett was a true man, faithful in all the relations of life. True to himself, true to his family, true to the church, faithful to his business engagements, faithful to his work, faithful to the Master. Men of less courage or less devotion would have quit the field seven years before he did. His friends, in the ministry and out of it, advised him, on account of his health, to retire from the effective ranks before he went to East Rockingham; but like our Great Pattern, he felt that he "must work while it was called day." He preferred to be carried home on a burnished shield.

He loved to sing :

"Happy, if with my latest breath,
I may but gasp his name ;
Preach him to all, and cry in death,
Behold, behold the Lamb."

He was a good theologian, an earnest preacher, a successful revivalist, a faithful pastor, and of him it might be appropriately said, "the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up."

The spirit of the man is more distinctly set forth in a letter written to his Presiding Elder during the last Conference session, than it could be by any words of ours, and as it is his last report to this Conference, we give the letter entire :

SHENANDOAH IRON WORKS, }
March 5th, 1875. }

DEAR BROTHER MARTIN :

I have given up all hope of getting to Conference. The weather has continued so unfavorable, and the increasing difficulty of travel on the roads, puts it almost beyond the possibility of getting there. I wish I could be there, to relieve, if possible, your mind of any anxiety or difficulty in my case. Remember, however, my aspirations are to some humble home and people, where I may best serve the interests of Christ's Kingdom. I am willing still to endure privations to the full extent of my physical strength. Drop me down at any point where I can work best—a small circuit or station—and I will adjust myself to the place with all my powers.

I pray God you may have a harmonious session, and that the Great Head of the Church will guide you in all things

Bro. Milnes will be there with my reports.

Yours, in Christ,

J. F. LIGGETT.

After Conference, he entered promptly and hopefully upon his work, but in a few weeks, he departed to be with Him who said, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

He died on the      day of                    1875, in great peace and triumph, a fitting close to a bright and joyous christian life.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The Committee on the Bible Cause beg leave to report, as follows :

A systematic and thorough circulation of the Sacred Scriptures is a work, the importance of which cannot be over-valued, and the good results of which cannot be fully estimated. Next to the preaching of the word, in value, may be regarded the distribution of the written word amongst families and individuals of all classes. To place a copy of the Holy Bible in the hands of every individual in the land, is indeed a delightful conception, and it would seem, that through the agency of the State and County Bible Societies, and the instrumentality of the Christian Church, this end could be easily accomplished. At a time like the present, when light and immoral literature is extensively circulated, by zealous agents and news-mongers, through the land, and along all the great thoroughfares of travel, when erroneous and strange doctrines are boldly advocated, when the most insidious forms of skepticism are wide spread, and when science, falsely so called, is seeking to insinuate doubts in regard to the most essential principles of christian truth, it well becomes the church of God to counteract all such evils as far as possible, not only by sound and evangelical preaching and pure christian example, but also by a vigorous dissemination of the Holy Bible.

The question is, have we as a Conference of christian ministers done our whole duty in this direction? Last year the amount reported as raised for the circulation of the Bible, was $604.35. This year the amount reported is $245.13. An additional amount however, of $42.98, is reported by the agent of the Virginia Bible Society, as having been raised by him within the bounds of the Baltimore Conference. This comparative statement shows that $316.24 less was raised this year than was raised last year, for this most worthy object, and this certainly is an exceedingly small amount for a body as large as ours to collect, and ought to admonish us to do better.

We therefore offer for re-adoption, the following resolutions passed by the last Conference, (viz :)

Resolved 1st. That it be recommended to the pastors of the different charges to preach on the subject of the study and circulation of the word of God, and to take up collections to aid the Bible Society in this special work.

Resolved 2d. That a cordial welcome, and hearty co-operation be given to the agents of the Bible Society, whenever they may visit our charges, and that all amounts of money, whether collected by the pastors themselves, or the agents, be carefully noted, and duly reported at Conference, so that the Church may have full credit for all that may be done in this department of christian work.

Respectfully submitted,

ISAAC W. CANTER,

Chairman.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Committee beg leave to report:

There are many encouraging facts in connection with the Sabbath School work—the numerical increase, the large number of conversions in the Sabbath Schools, the rapid dissemination of an earnest spirit in connection with the moral and spiritual welfare of the children brought under our Church care, are encouraging facts, and demand our profound gratitude.

The Church in all parts of the country seems more faithfully than ever in the past, to be moving in obedience to the command of Christ: "Feed my Lambs."

No branch of our Church work has drawn more rapidly to its aid, the attention and thought of the best minds and earnest spirits of the Church, than that of the Sabbath School.

The Sabbath School, while not designed to supplant home instructions, has under its control to a degree involving great responsibility, the development of true religious thought in the minds of those committed to its care.

The Sabbath School is now regarded a co-ordinate branch of the Church, upon the success of which depend the advancement of our Church in numbers, filling up and increasing our ranks, with minds stored with religious truth and purified by grace.

We have carefully examined the Sunday School Magazine, Lesson Papers, Sunday School Visitor and Little People, sent us by the agent at Nashville, and from that examination, and from our former knowledge of them, we regard them as publications of superior merit and better adapted to the wants of the children of our Church than any other publication within our reach.

We report the following resolutions for adoption by the Conference :

1st. That our own Sabbath School Literature be used in preference to all other publications.

2d. That we recommend to all the preachers of this Conference, the introduction of our series of Catechisms into all our Sunday Schools.

3d. That we suggest to our preachers that they visit the Sabbath Schools, preach to them and impress upon the minds of parents and the officers of the schools, the importance of leading the children to an early consecration to God.

4th. That we condemn the use of light and trashy literature, much of which is to be found in many of our Sabbath School Libraries.

5th. That our preachers and people be requested to secure and carefully read Dr. Regester's book, "Children and the Church," which is a most valuable contribution to our Church Literature.

6th. That special effort be made to secure religious teachers in our Sabbath Schools; and that we may supply our schools with competent christian instructors, we recommend that bible classes and teachers' meetings be organized under the direction of the pastors and superintendents.

7th. We do most earnestly urge upon superintendents the employment of all proper means to secure a larger attendance of our Sabbath School children upon the public ministration of the word.

8th. That our ministers and superintendents of Sabbath Schools endeavor to cultivate a spirit of liberality among the young by exhortation, and the establishment of a system of weekly contributions for the benefit of some worthy object of our Church.

9th. That our preachers be requested to preach a sermon occasionally on the relation of children to the Church, and the duty of church members and parents in attending the Sabbath School.

10th. That our Sabbath School workers, as far as practicable, attend the Sabbath School Convention of this Conference, to be held at Lewisburg the ensuing Summer.

We would also state that we received from Dr. Redford, a communication recommending the appointment of a Sabbath School agent. In reference to this matter we have taken no action, but leave the matter in the hands of the Conference.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

GEO. G. BROOKE, Chairman.

S. G. FERGUSON, Secretary.

EDUCATION.

It is no longer an open question whether or not the church of God shall undertake and carry on the work of education.

The word of God fixes the obligation to inform the understanding, instruct the conscience, and bring every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ. The obligation has, in some measure, been confessed, and the matter of christian education has now a large place in the deliberations of religious bodies. It is felt that it would be a dishonor to the Church to fall below the standards of culture known to secular systems, and that the formal defense of the christian faith requires, in addition to the power of the preacher, the faithful use of the best and most thoroughly trained intellectual agencies. So much admitted, it is simply a question of sufficient provision. How much ought we to do? How much are we doing? We cannot here make reply. Enough to say, that an investigation into the educational demands of our own Conference, the facilities furnished, and the resources at command will show that we are certainly not doing more than we ought, that we cannot in conscience do less, and that a reasonable response from the many who hold in hand the wealth with which God has entrusted them for carrying on His work, would amply sustain our institutions of learning, and insure rapid progress and large gains to the Church in the fields of intellectual and religious endeavor. The following brief statements show the provision made for the benefit of our young of both sexes, and the requisites for their successful operation :

RANDOLPH MACON COLLEGE.

The President's report, whose publication in the Annual Register we recommend, sets forth the condition of the College so fully that it is only needful to add the following resolutions, viz:

Resolved, 1st. That we rejoice in the gratifying prosperity of Randolph Macon College, notwithstanding the great financial pressure which has somewhat hindered the execution of the plans projected for its better endowment.

2d. Resolved, That the usual assessment of $2,000, as a fund for the education of the beneficiaries at the College, be made by the Board of Finance for the ensuing year.

3d. Resolved, That as a Conference, we will cordially and earnestly co-operate with the Trustees and Agent of the College in their effort to promote the welfare of the College.

WESLEYAN FEMALE INSTITUTE, AT STAUNTON, VA.

This Institution, while not enjoying quite as large a patronage as for some years past, yet reports 95 boarding pupils; and in view of the high grade attained by this school under Dr. Harris, we most cordially renew our recommendation of it to the patronage of our people. Its facilities, both as to position, accommodations, and character of its faculty, places it in the front rank of our Educational Institutions.

Inasmuch as a financial exhibit of the Institution has been referred to our Committee, we feel authorized to express the opinion, that, under the present arrangement, the Board of Trustees are receiving so small an amount annually, as seriously to threaten financial embarrassment to the Institution in the near future, and we therefore urge that the Board of Trustees take measures to increase said income so as to reduce, as speedily as possible, the present enormous debt of over $30,000.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Wesleyan Female Institute, at Staunton, Va., be and they hereby are requested to appoint a Committee to investigate the financial condition, in full, of the said Institute, from the purchase of the new building to the present time, and report to the next session of the Conference.

VALLEY FEMALE COLLEGE.

The Committee is gratified to report still an encouraging advance in the prosperity of this Institution under the Presidency of Rev. B. Arbogast, A. M.

It has improved in its patronage.

From being third in numbers among the Female Colleges of Winchester in its first year, it is now, in its third year, the first. Valuable improvements have been made in the buildings and grounds. We were pleasantly surprised at the spaciousness and beauty of the College building. The remarkable exemption of the pupils from disease from the foundation of the Institution is a noteworthy fact. We are very glad also to announce the religious prosperity of the school; as formerly, many of its pupils have been converted the present year. The College is evidently growing, as it richly deserves, in public favor. We commend it cordially to your fostering care, and look confidently for its increasing prosperity.

THE LONOAK FEMALE COLLEGE,

At Martinsburg, West Virginia, under the management of Rev. Jno. P. Hyde, A. M., is reported to us as in a prosperous condition, and the Visiting Committee appointed by our last Conference have presented us a very favorable account of its condition and prospects, and we hereby heartily recommend it to the patronage of our people in its vicinity.

In conclusion, we offer the following resolutions :

Resolved, 1st. That we recommend the establishment, wherever practicable in our charges, of schools for both sexes in the interest and under the patronage of our own Church, and urge our people to give the preference to such schools, and encourage them by sending to them their children.

Resolved, 2d. That the Bishop be requested to appoint a Visiting Committee to each of the above named Institutions.

Resolved, 3d. That said Committees be required to present a written report of their visits not later than the second day of the Conference, to be laid before the Committee on Education.

PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

The Committee on Publishing Interests, to whom was referred the communication of Dr. A. H. Redford, Agent of the Publishing House at Nashville, respectfully report :

That they are gratified to learn from the exhibit made by the agent, that the establishment is in so healthful a financial condition, notwithstanding the depression in the monetary interests of the country, for several years past, the assets showing an excess over liabilities of $306,701.55. That, in view of the peculiar difficulties besetting this enterprise during and since the war, and especially the destruction of the house, a few years since, with its machinery and material, by fire, it is an occasion for grateful recognition that it has reached its present state of at least comparative prosperity, and survived a period of commercial disaster during which so many older and seemingly more stable establishments have been wrecked.

We would recommend to the Conference the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st. That we recognize the very important relation which the Publishing House at Nashville sustains to the general interests of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and heartily commend it to the confidence and support of our people.

Resolved, 2d. That regarding the agency of the press, second only in its power for good to that of the pulpit, we urge our preachers and people to patronize our own publications, and aid in giving them as extensive a circulation as possible, by this means diffusing more widely our own doctrines and usages as a Church, and thus seeking to counteract as far as we may be able, that pernicious literature so widely afloat in our land, and exerting so baneful an influence upon both the faith and morals of our population.

Resolved, 3d. That we recommend the Nashville Christian Advocate, edited by Rev. Dr. Summers, as the accredited organ of the Church at large, and an important medium of information on all matters affecting its general welfare and prosperity.

Your committee would furthermore recommend most heartily to the patronage of our people the Southern Quarterly Review, edited by Rev. Dr. Bledsoe, and Mrs. Bledsoe Herrick, as a magazine conducted with rare ability, and occupying a most important place in our Church Literature.

CONFERENCE PAPER.

At a called meeting of the Committee on Conference Paper, held in Mt. Vernon Place Church, Washington, D. C., October 11th, 1875, there were present, W. P. Conway, Jesse B. Wilson, and Young O. Wilson, laymen, and D. Ball, A. W. Wilson, and R. R. S. Hough, ministers.

W. P. Conway was elected chairman, and R. R. S. Hough, secretary.

After a careful examination of the whole subject, the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, at the last annual session of the Baltimore Conference, held at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Washington, D. C., a committee of nine was appointed "to inquire into the practicability of publishing a weekly religious paper in the City of Baltimore, as the organ of the Conference," and whereas said committee has fully investigated the whole matter submitted for its consideration. Therefore,

Resolved, That we find it impracticable to publish said paper at this time.

TEMPERANCE.

The Committee on Temperance beg leave to report:

The evils arising from the drinking of intoxicating liquors are so wide-spread and destructive, that it needs no argument to show their existence. There is scarcely a hamlet, or indeed a family that sooner or later does not grievously suffer from their ravages. Instances where intemperance has utterly crushed the dearest hopes of life, and brought poverty, neglect, shame, disease and death to homes once peaceful and happy, are too sadly familiar to us all. Misery and crime are its fruits in this life. More terrible still, eternal ruin is its ordinary result in the next. "No drunkard shall inherit the Kingdom of God." Every year thousands of souls become its victims and are forever lost in hell. On so pernicious a practice the condemnation of the Church of God ought to be stamped deeply and plainly. She, who also claims, and justly, to be the best guardian of temperance, should give forth no uncertain sound as to this matter, but unsparingly rebuke all who, whether by the distillation, sale or actual unnecessary use of ardent spirits, promote this fearful vice among the people. There is reason to believe that some have wrongly imagined from the failure of the requisite majority of the Annual Conferences to ratify the new rule on this subject, proposed by our last General Conference, that we have no law prohibiting these practices. Care should therefore be everywhere taken to clearly set forth, and strongly maintain the contrary position as the one truly held by our Church; otherwise we shall inevitably be discredited in the eyes of the world and lose much of our power for good. Discipline also, whenever needed, should be rigidly enforced without fear or favor. "Holiness to the Lord" should be written over the door of the Church, in this as in other things, and should be the object of our efforts at all risks. If not, the spreading ulcer will soon eat out the life of the Church.

We recommend the following Resolutions:

1st. That our people be reminded that the manufacture and the sale, as well as the drinking of ardent spirits as a beverage, are positively prohibited by the laws of our Church.

2d. That we earnestly enjoin upon our preachers and people, by all proper means, to discourage the making, vending, or unnecessary drinking of spirituous liquors; and especially in their own practice carefully to observe the requirements of our Church to abstain from them all.

3d. That we urge all our preachers in charge to a strict enforcement of our laws in this regard against all among us guilty either of beginning or continuing such practices; also to preach at least once during the year in all their congregations upon this subject.

4th. That the Conference elect seven delegates, three clerical and four lay, to attend the "International Temperance Conference," called to meet in Philadelphia, June 13th, 1876; also that the secretary of the Conference be requested to send the names of such delegates to J. N. Stearns, Esq., No. 58 Read Street, New York.

REPORT OF SECRETARY OF BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS, BALTIMORE CONFERENCE.

During the past year we have sustained within our bounds, twenty-four missions. One being a mission amongst the Germans of Baltimore and its vicinity, and under the successful management of Rev. E. N. S. Blogg, of the Virginia Conference.

One young man, of fine promise, has been converted in this mission, and is now laboring with much zeal and success amongst his German countrymen in Texas. Another has been found in this mission who is now preparing for the missionary work amongst the German settlers of Brazil, S. A. Bro. Blogg has been ably assisted in his labors by Rev. Gotleib Meyer.

Of the other missions, one has been in the Baltimore District—Beltsville—in charge of Rev. Wm. A. McDonald. Two in the East Baltimore District—West Harford and Kent—which have been respectively served by Revs. Chas. Torreyson and Elias Welty, and with encouraging results.

In the Washington District we have had one mission, under Rev. J. P. Hall. This mission has been absorbed during the year by the surrounding regular appointments.

In the Winchester District we have had four missions—Frederick, Berryville, Morgan and Shenandoah, efficiently conducted by Revs. Geo. Stevenson, A. B. Dolly, Wm. M. Hiner, and A. Roby. The Shenandoah mission has been divided during the year, and a self-supporting charge constructed.

We have had in the Rockingham District three missions, viz: Rockingham, under Rev. J. T. Maxwell; Elk Run, under Rev. Wm. B. Dorsey; and Furnace No. 2, under Rev. L. Fox. These missions present many features of interest and give promise of much good.

In the Lexington District we have had four missions—Fairfield, in charge of Rev. J. S. Porter; West Augusta, in charge of Rev. S. B. Dolly; Monterey, in charge of Rev. Thos. Hildebrand; and Green Valley, under Rev. A. H. Way. These missions have been faithfully cared for, and with gracious results.

The one mission in the Lewisburg District—Edray—has been well served by Rev. J. W. Canter.

In the Roanoke District we have had four missions, viz: Christiansburg, New Castle, Catawba and Lafayette, in charge respectively of Revs. F. A. Mercer, Robt. Ross, Jno. D. Eddington, and L. Butt. Labors upon these missions both abundant and successful.

Moorefield District has had two missionary fields within its bounds, viz: Hardy and South Fork. Both rugged and with many discouragements, but faithfully served by Revs. J. Varner and Asbury C. McNeer.

The Board revised the appropriations to the above missions, making a reduction of amount to Potomac mission of $50.00. The full amounts to the other missions were continued and ordered to be paid in full, aggregating $5,275.00.

On motion, it was resolved to continue in office the same President and other Officers of the Board of Missions as existing past year.

The Board also resolved to be rigid in enforcing the Seventh Article of Constitution, referring to preachers on missions making quarterly reports to the Secretary of Board.

On motion, it was resolved that the President and Secretary of our Home Mission Board, be and are hereby directed to make request of the Board of General Missions, at Nashville, for an appropriation of the sum of $500.00, for the support of our German work in Baltimore City.

Encouragement was extended to Rev. Saml. Rushton, a colored local preacher belonging to Leesburg Station, Washington District, to continue his labors amongst his own people in and about Leesburg, Va.—$25.00 appropriated.

* The apparent decrease is owing to the fact, that in last year's estimate, UNION Churches were included, in which we had a partial interest; this year only such Churches are included as are our exclusive property.

NOTE—The statistics of last year (1875) presented a decrease in churches of 11
In like manner this year there is a decrease of.....	7	—
Total decrease of churches in two years.....	18

These reports each year have been surprising to us. The Conference directed the Secretary to call attention to these discrepancies, and to state that within the two years past a number of new church buildings have been erected, and that no instance has been brought to our view of the loss of such number of our churches by litigation or otherwise.

Without accounting for the loss of 11 churches the previous year—by comparing the statistical report of 1875 with that of 1876, we see a decrease of 7 churches.

These are found distributed to the several Districts as follows:

Preachers can determine to what particular charges these variations apply by comparing the reports of each charge for 1875 and 1876.

Whatever may have been the cause of this incorrectness of the report of the number of our churches in the last two years, it is the desire of the Conference that it be avoided in the future.

By order of Conference,

J. S. MARTIN, Secretary.

PLAN OF FINANCE,

Adopted by the Conference of 1875, is here published by order of the Conference at this session.

PLAN OF FINANCE FOR CIRCUITS AND STATIONS.

Believing that the mortifying deficiencies which from year to year are reported by our preachers, arise more from a want of some systematic plan well carried out, than from a want of ability to pay, we recommend the following plan for your adoption :

I. At the first Quarterly Conference, after the Stewards shall have ascertained the amount of the preachers' allowance and the Presiding Elder's claim, and apportioned the same to the several appointments of the charge, and determined in how many installments the yearly contributions shall be paid, in accordance with the discipline, then let the Stewards, with such other judicious brethren as they may call to their aid, assess the amount it is expected to raise at each appointment, upon all the members of the Church, individually, according to their several ability.

This assessment to be regarded as a suggestion as to what, in the judgment of the Stewards, each member ought to pay, and what is necessary to meet the demand.

II. This being done, the Stewards should see all the members of the Church as soon as practicable, and if possible, get them to agree to their assessments; if not, then say what they will contribute.

III. Then let a Church Conference be called at the earliest possible day, at every appointment, and let the Stewards announce what has been done.

Each Steward shall keep in a book the names of the members assigned to him, with the amounts assessed to each, and he shall be expected to see that the amounts assessed are brought up in full.

IV. Let a Church Conference be held at the close of each quarter, at every appointment, and let one of the Stewards read out what has been assessed and how much has been paid by each member at said appointment.

The preachers shall urge our people to a more general attendance upon the Church Conferences; and it shall be the duty of the Presiding Elders to aid in this matter, and urge its importance upon both preachers and people, wherever it may be necessary.

We earnestly recommend that no man shall be elected to the office of Steward out of mere compliment; and that no inefficient person be retained where it is possible to secure the services of men otherwise qualified according to the discipline, who would probably be more diligent and efficient in matters of finance.

The attention of our preachers and people is hereby called especially to paragraph 4, Section I, Chapter IX, page 156 of the discipline, on this subject.

GRAND, SQUARE & UPRIGHT PIANOS

Have received the highest encomiums wherever they have been introduced.

MADE OF THE VERY BEST MATERIALS THROUGHOUT,

they are, nevertheless, offered at prices that will compare favorably with those of any first-class manufactory on this continent. The best is always the cheapest, and hence purchasers of STIEFF Pianos will find a satisfactory equivalent for their money.

The lasting quality of their instruments is fully attested by the many Educational and other Institutions, in the Southern States especially, where over 400 are in daily use, and by the unanimous verdict of the best performers of this and other countries. Terms as favorable as is consistent with the times, and every instrument fully warranted for five years.

We are also Sole Agents for the Southern States of the

which speak for themselves. A full supply of every style constantly in store, and sold on the most reasonable terms.

Fifty Second-hand Pianos always on hand, at prices ranging from $75 to $300.
